UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

United States's First Set
Of Interrogatories and Requests for Production to Third Party Petitioner

- against -

Criminal Action No.

NIKOLAI DOZORTSEV, et. al.

- - - - - X
- - - - - X

IN RE:

REGINA VADIMOVA LINETSKAYA
(aka "Regina Linetska"),

Third Party Petitioner.

- - - - - -X

The United States of America, pursuant to the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure Rule 32.2(c)(1)(B), and Federal Rules of Civil Procedure Rules 33 and 34, and in connection with the Third Party Petitioner's request for an ancillary proceeding hearing regarding the forfeiture of a loose round 2.19 Carat Diamond, ("the Diamond"), hereby submits and requests Third Party Petitioner respond in writing, under oath, in English, and within thirty (30) days of service, to the following Interrogatories. All responses to such Interrogatories are to be in writing, under oath, and submitted within thirty (30) days of service, pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. Rules 26(g) and 33(b) (Signature by counsel is unacceptable). Any supporting documentation available in response to such Interrogatories should also be provided.

DEFINITIONS

1. "You," "your" and "Third Party Petitioner" shall refer to Regina Vadimova Linetskaya (aka "Regina Linetska"), and her representatives, agents, and attorneys.

2. The "Diamond" shall refer to the property found and seized from the residence of defendant Nikolai Dozortsev, 2805 Ocean Parkway, Apt. 10, Brooklyn, New York 11235 on October 13, 2007 which was ordered forfeited pursuant to the Preliminary Order of Forfeiture entered against criminal defendant, Nikolai Dozortsev in the above-referenced criminal case on or about November 17, 2008.

3. The definitions and rules of construction set forth in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 34(a) and Local Civil Rule 26.3 are incorporated herein and set forth, in pertinent part, below for your convenience:

a. "Communication" means the transmittal of information (in the form of facts, ideas, inquiries, or otherwise);

b. "Concerning" means relating to, referring to, describing, evidencing, or constituting;

c. "Document" includes all documents or electronically stored information - including writings, drawings, graphs, charts, photographs, sound recordings, images, and other data or data compilations - stored in any medium from which information can be obtained either directly or, if necessary, after translation by the responding party into a reasonably usable form;

d. "Identify" (with respect to persons). When referring to a person, "to identify" means to give, to the extent known, the person's full name and present or last known address, and when referring to a natural person, additionally, the present or last known place of employment. Once a person has been identified in accordance with this subparagraph, only the name of that person need be listed in response to subsequent discovery requesting the identification of that person;

e. "Identify" (with respect to documents). When referring to documents, "to identify" means to give, to the extent known, the (i) type of document; (ii) general subject matter; (iii) date of the document; and (iv) author(s), addressee(s) and recipient(s);

f. "Person" is defined as any natural person or any business, legal or governmental entity or association; and

g. The following rules of construction apply to all discovery requests:

i. All/Each. The terms "all" and "each" shall be construed as all and each;

ii. And/Or. The connectives "and" and "or" shall be construed either disjunctively or conjunctively as necessary to bring within the scope of the discovery request all responses that might otherwise be construed to be outside of its scope; and

iii. Number. The use of the singular form of any word includes the plural and vice versa.

INSTRUCTIONS

1. The Third Party Petitioner shall provide separate responses to each Interrogatory and Document Request.

2. Your response to each Interrogatory shall include such knowledge or information as is within your actual or constructive possession including, but not limited to, knowledge or information in the actual or constructive possession of your representatives, officers, agents, attorneys and employees.

3. Where facts set forth in answers to Interrogatories or portions thereof are supplied upon your information and belief, rather than your actual personal knowledge, the answer should so state, and should specifically describe or identify the sources of such information and belief.

4. If you cannot answer the entire Interrogatory, answer to the fullest extent possible, specify your inability to answer the remainder, and state whatever information you have concerning the unanswered portion.

5. You must answer each Interrogatory fully and separately in writing under oath and execute the attached declaration. The full text of the Interrogatory to which you are responding should be restated before your answer.

6. You must respond to each Document Request fully and separately in writing. The full text of the Document Request to which you are responding should be restated before your written response.

7. The Interrogatories and Document Requests are continuing in nature, meaning that if, at any time after submitting your initial written responses and producing responsive documents, you obtain information, knowledge or documents causing you to believe that the response to any Interrogatory or Document Request was not true, correct, or complete when given, you are required to provide, by way of supplementary responses and productions, the true, correct, and complete answers to the Interrogatory, in writing under oath, or any other documents responsive to the Document Requests, within ten (10) days following the date upon which such knowledge or documents were first obtained by you.

8. With respect to each answer to the Interrogatories, identify the person who prepared or supplied the information for such answer, including that person's name and business address.

9. With respect to the Document Requests, you are required to search for and produce all responsive documents, wherever located, that are in your actual or constructive possession, custody, care and/or control, and in the actual or constructive possession, custody, care and/or control of your representatives, officers, agents, attorneys and employees. If you have more than one copy of a document, and the copies are not identical, you must produce all copies of the document that you have in your possession.

10. If you contend that the answer to any Interrogatory or response to any Document Request is privileged in whole or in part, or otherwise object to any part of any Interrogatory or Document Request, you are directed to comply with Civil Rule 26.2 of the Local Rules, and state in writing with respect to each Interrogatory or Document Request, the response to which is claimed to be privileged, the following:

a. State in detail the grounds for such claim of privilege or reasons for such objection; and

b. Identify each person having knowledge of the factual basis, if any, on which the privilege or other grounds are asserted.

11. If you had any documents called for herein, which have since been lost, discarded, destroyed or otherwise disposed of, you shall so indicate and describe the documents by date; author(s); addressee(s), including persons receiving carbon or blind copies; general subject matter; the date on which the document was lost or destroyed; and, if destroyed, the reason for such destruction and the name of the person or persons requesting the destruction.

12. If only part of the Interrogatory or Document Request is objected to, respond to the remaining portion and indicate the portion to which you are responding.

13. Unless otherwise specified below, the relevant time period for the following Interrogatories and Document Requests is from January 2004 to the date of your responses thereto.
